Zonya Foco is a nationally-recognized expert on nutrition and wellness. Discover how the tiniest, most painless habits – when done daily – can add up to a huge change in the way you look and feel. Make a different choice here. Add a little movement there. Without dieting or deprivation, you can rev up your metabolism to lose 50 pounds or take 50 points off your cholesterol in just one year!

Organized by the Delta College Wellness Education Committee. For more information, contact Cynthia Grether at (989) 686-9037.

“THE LOST BOYS OF SUDAN”

Gabriel Bol Deng

Tuesday,
December 2
3 p.m.

Lecture Theater

Gabriel Bol Deng has built a reputation as an informative and passionate public speaker in order to create awareness of the suffering of millions of people in his native Sudan. His inspiring lectures touch on the American immigrant experience, the ongoing political turmoil in Sudan, the situation in Darfur and its connections to South Sudan, and the impact of war on children.

He bears witness to the importance of education and the triumph of the human spirit, and emphasizes the power of hope and of holding on to your dreams.

Organized by the Delta College Multicultural Office. For more information, contact Sylvia George at (989) 686-9865.

Events in Delta's Discovery Series are free and open to the general public. If you plan to bring a large group, please contact the individual responsible for each presentation so you can be sure that adequate space will be available.
